

ATHLETIC TRAINER SYMPOSIUM

A SYMPOSIUM FOR CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINERS

JAN. 26 | 8AM-12PM | CALDWELL HS

Caldwell High School: 265 Westville Ave, West Caldwell, NJ 07006

Continental Breakfast & Boxed Lunches Provided

RSVP to info@jagpt.com by 1/20/17 | 7:30AM Registration | Program: 8AM-12PM

SPEAKERS

Dr. Christopher Ahmad, NY Yankees Head Team Physician:

Diagnosis and Treatment of Upper Extremity Injuries

Dr. Anthony Scillia, Director of Hip Arthroscopy & Joint Preservation Service at Seton Hall University:

Spring Sports Injuries and Hip Overview

Dr. Michael Kelly, Team Physician, Seton Hall University & Caldwell University:

Common Skin Disorders in Athletes

Marissa Cardinali, PT, DPT:

Graston Technique in the Athletic Training Room

David Motisi, ATC, MBA:

Blood Flow Restriction Therapy

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

- Recognition, evaluation and treatment of upper extremity injuries in the spring sport athlete.
- Recognition, evaluation and treatment of lower extremity injuries in the spring sport athlete.
- Recognition and management of common skin disorders in the athletic population.
- Understanding new manual therapy techniques in the athletic training room.

4.0 CEU's will be offered to Certified Athletic Trainers

Target Audience: Certified Athletic Trainers

Level of Difficulty: Advanced

Schedule and Format: Powerpoint Presentation/Open Discussion

Fees: No Registration Fee; Seminar is Complimentary

Cancellation Policy: No cancellation policy

JAG Physical Therapy is recognized by the Board of Certification, Inc. to offer continuing education for Certified Athletic Trainers.